Case No. 7:21-cr-00681 -01(NSR)

v.
JACOB CARTER

Defendant,

SO ORDERED:

HON. NELSON S. ROMAN
UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE

DEFENDANT'S MOTION TO MODIFY CONDITIONS OF PRETRIAL RELEASE WITH AFFIDAVIT IN SUPPORT

COMES NOW, Jacob Carter, Affiant, duly sworn, under penalty of perjury and gives this Response in Objection to plaintiff's complaint with affidavit in support and says:

Please take notice that Jacob Carter is not an attorney and at no time within these proceedings is practicing law and is incapable of being held to the standard of a practitioner of law.

Please take further notice that there is no such thing as a "sovereign citizen" and Jacob Carter wishes that the aforementioned title is not placed upon Jacob Carter. Jacob Carter is merely exercising his inherent right to protect and defend against all unlawful undertakings, false accusations and will do so in open Court.

GROUND TO MODIFY CONDITIONS OF PRETRIAL RELEASE

1. On October 11th, 2021, a Complaint, unaccompanied by an affidavit, was filed, signed,

3. The nature of the alleged charges, Complaint nor indictment present any factors that determines the defendant a threat to the public nor a flight risk.
4. The defendant has appeared as instructed by way of Orders of this Court as well as bond conditions and is not a flight risk nor is there any evidence to suggest otherwise.
5. The opposing party has not deemed the defendant as a flight risk and the Federal Bureau of Investigations has seized the defendants passport therefore international travel is out of the question.
6. The defendant has familial obligations that require his presence in multiple states as well as employment opportunities that if missed, causes irreparable damages to the financial wellbeing of the defendants family and presents the factor of being homeless.
7. The defendant is willing to continue scheduled check-in with probation but is in need of his liberty to move about freely to not be deprived as he has never been convicted of any charges presented before this Court.
8. The Current conditions of PRETRIAL RELEASE causes great financial harm and unbearable conditions that will cause the defendant and family to become homeless if not changed. Defendants new job requires ability to travel within the United States. The new employer is willing to accept the defendant as employee if this Court allows the defendant to travel for work. In the event of denial of the defendants request for modification of PRETRIAL condition, the defendant and beneficiaries will suffer a loss of $400,000.00 annual.
9. Line (f) on the additional conditions of release "states for attorney visits only". The defendant does not have an attorney.
10. The defendant respectfully motions this Court to grant the following relief:
 - a. Allow the defendant to execute his familial obligations.
 - b. Allow defendant to execute new employment obligations such as traveling for work and report to PRETRIAL services.
 - c. Allow defendant new employer to give PRETRIAL services report of job locations
